Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on August 13, 2007 has been entered.

Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer filed on August 13, 2007 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of US Application No. 10/849,432 has been reviewed and is NOT accepted.

Applicant cannot file a copy of a terminal disclaimer to overcome the earlier deficiencies. Specifically, applicant has corrected the attorney of record issue that prevented acceptance of the terminal disclaimer filed on January 16, 2007. However, applicant must now file a terminal disclaimer that has been signed/executed on or after the attorney or record issue has been corrected. As such, the copy of the January 16, 2007 terminal disclaimer is not acceptable.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140

Art Unit: 3739

F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-3 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 2 of U.S. Patent No. 10/849,432 in view of the teaching of Eggers et al (5,484,436). The only difference between the two sets of claims is the type of instrument. The instant application claims are drawn to an endoscopic instrument, and the '432 application claims are drawn to an open-procedure instrument. Eggers et al fairly teach that it is generally known to provide such a device in either open-procedure (Figure 1) or endoscopic procedure (Figure 2) form to use the device in a variety of situations. To have provided the claims in either form is deemed an obvious design expedient in view of the teaching of Eggers et al. The use of channels for providing conductors to the electrodes is also deemed an obvious consideration for one of ordinary skill in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

As amended the claims are deemed to be allowable over the prior art of record. In particular, the prior art fails to disclose the particular channel arrangement as now set forth in the amended claims. The filing of an acceptable terminal disclaimer will put the application in condition for allowance.
